UCI MOUNTAIN BIKE WORLD CUP PRESENTED BY SHIMANO

A BRIEF RUNDOWN

The UCI Mountain Bike World Cup has a long, colourful history and enjoys a solid following throughout the world. Over the years, the UCI has modified the format and introduced new initiatives in order to keep up with evolving trends and meet the expectations of athletes and fans.

EVOLUTION OF THE UCI MOUNTAIN BIKE WORLD CUP

1991

It was 24 years ago that two American riders, John Tomac and Sara Ballantyne, became the first winners of the UCI Mountain Bike World Cup. The year was 1991, and the World Cup series comprised nine rounds in seven countries, catering for Cross-country Olympic (XCO) specialists only.

1993

Two years later the downhill (DHI) format joined the programme, crowning two German athletes this time: Jürgen Beneke and Regina Stiefl. Interestingly, John Tomac, XCO winner in 1991, took second place in the inaugural downhill World Cup as well as second in the XCO.

1998 - 2001

1998 was the year that the dual slalom – the forerunner of four-cross – made its debut in the World Cup. Dual slalom involved knock-out heats with two riders racing on parallel courses, and it featured in the World Cup for four years. American Brian Lopes and Australian Katrina Miller won the overall classification the first year.

2002 - 2011

After four years on the programme, the dual slalom was replaced by four-cross (4X) in which four riders race against each other on a single course. Winner of three of the four dual-slalom World Cups, Brian Lopes went on to dominate the first year of four-cross. In the women's competition victory went to France's Anne-Caroline Chausson, already winner of the dual-slalom in 2000.

2012-2014

Cross-country Eliminator was the latest mountain bike format to join the UCI Mountain Bike World Cup from 2012 to 2014. This spectacular format for XCO specialists sees four competitors race head-to-head over a lap of around a kilometre. Introduced to the World Cup with three events in 2012, six Eliminator rounds appeared in 2013 and 2014 with the overall classifications going to Belgium's Fabrice Mels and Switzerland's Kathrin Stirnemann.

BEST EVENTS

The UCI Mountain Bike World Cup rewards not only the best athletes but also the best organisers. Each year, UCI Mountain Bike Teams, sponsors, and UCI officials vote for the top events for each of the two formats: cross-country and downhill. This creates healthy competition between the organisers and encourages them to stage events of the highest quality.

Cross-Country Olympic: Mont-Sainte-Anne (CAN)

Since its first involvement with the UCI World Cup in 1991, the Canadian resort has become a not-to-be-missed feature on the calendar. Hosting its 26th UCI event this year, this classic rendezvous was voted best XCO event thanks to its excellent organisation and ever-popular course that every year boasts innovations.

Downhill: Fort William (GBR)

This legendary spot in the Scottish Highlands wins the “best event” vote for 2016. Also host of the 2007 UCI Mountain Bike & Trials World Championships, Fort William organised a World Cup stopover for the 15th time in 2016. Several times winner of the “best event” award, the Scottish destination again won over the voters thanks to its course, large crowds, unique atmosphere, watertight organisation and team facilities: in summary, a fantastic promotion for the discipline.

DISCIPLINES INTRODUCTION

CROSS-COUNTRY OLYMPIC (XCO)

Cross-country Olympic format races are held over undulating circuits (with technical descents, forest roads, rocky paths and obstacles) of 4 to 6 km, which riders must complete several times. The Elite racing times, for men and women, vary from 1h20 minutes to 1h40 minutes. An attractive course design that shows the discipline well on television and also spectator friendly is a necessity!

DOWNHILL (DHI)

Downhill is a race against the clock in which the rider negotiates a succession of fast and technical passages. The participant must demonstrate courage as well as sharp technical and piloting skills in order to battle tree roots, rocks, banked sections, bumps, jumps and other natural obstacles along the way.

WORLD CUP PARTNERS

PRESENTING SPONSOR

Shimano has been in partnership with the UCI since 1999 and oversees technical services at the UCI World Championships (road, track, mountain bike & trials, MTB marathon, cyclo-cross and para-cycling) and at the UCI Cyclo-cross World Cup. It has also been in charge of technical assistance at the last four Olympic Games (Athens 2004, Beijing 2008, London 2012 and Rio 2016). Shimano also fulfilled this role at the Youth Olympic Games (Singapore 2010 and Nanjing 2014). The contract between Shimano and the UCI was extended in 2016 for a period of four years (2017-2020).

THE WORLD CUP ON INTERNET

Over 44 million television viewers and a large online audience reflects the enhanced broadcast offer

As in the previous year, the UCI ensured excellent coverage of the UCI Mountain Bike World Cup presented by Shimano thanks to its official media partnership with Red Bull Media House (RBMH). In 2016 the UCI MTB World Cup Series reached 1.1 million digital views on Red Bull TV for live broadcasts, plus 1.8 million Video on Demand views for these live programmes.

Red Bull TV broadcast 38 hours live, worldwide without geo-blocking, as well as highlight shows and a large number of additional clips. Available in a variety of formats, Red Bull TV broadcasts through the Red Bull TV App or Red Bull TV Online. People can watch Red Bull TV anytime, anywhere and on any device free of charge.

2.7 million TV viewers followed the 9 rounds of the 2017 UCI Mountain Bike World Cup Series by watching either the live broadcasts or delayed highlight summaries. In total, 48 broadcasters from 94 countries covered the 2016 UCI Mountain Bike World Cup presented by Shimano by different means: live broadcasts, highlights, news or short reports. The coverage reached a cumulative TV audience of over 44 million.

PRESENTATION OF THE ROUNDS

LOURDES / FRA DHI

For the third consecutive year, the UCI Mountain Bike World Cup presented by Shimano kicks off in Lourdes with a round 100% dedicated to downhill. Since 2015, riders and fans have appreciated this opening event in the foothills of the Pyrenees, which offers a stunning view of the French market town. Along with Fort William and Leogang, Lourdes is one of three downhill-only events on this year's UCI Mountain Bike World Cup calendar.

The complete competition programme is available
on the UCI website.

PRESENTATION OF THE ROUNDS

NOVE MESTO NA MORAVE / CZE XCO

Three weeks after Lourdes, the cross-country Olympic specialists will put their skills to the test in the Czech Republic. A regular host of the UCI Mountain Bike World Cup presented by Shimano and voted “best event” of the series five years running, Nove Mesto na Morave returns to the UCI World Cup after hosting the UCI Mountain Bike Cross-country World Championships last year. A stand-out feature is the start/finish area in the impressive biathlon stadium, which hosted the 2013 Biathlon World Championships.

*The complete competition programme is available
on the UCI website.*

PRESENTATION OF THE ROUNDS

ALBSTADT / GER XCO

The German venue will organise an XCO round of the UCI Mountain Bike World Cup for the fifth time since it first joined the calendar in 2013. The Albstadt bike park was created in 2004 and features a combination of physically-demanding passages and technical sections. The venue in south-west Germany is popular with XCO riders, some of whom use it to prepare for the World Cup. Albstadt has been awarded the 2020 UCI Mountain Bike Cross-country Olympic World Championships.

*The complete competition programme is available
on the UCI website.*

PRESENTATION OF THE ROUNDS

FORT WILLIAM / GBR DHI

After first joining the UCI World Cup in 2002, this British stopover features on the calendar for the 16th time. Also host of the 2007 UCI Mountain Bike & Trials World Championships, this spot in the Scottish Highlands is a not-to-be-missed destination on the DHI calendar. Clear evidence of this was that Fort William was voted several times winner of the "best event" award.

The complete competition programme is available
on the UCI website.

PRESENTATION OF THE ROUNDS

LEOGANG / AUT DHI

The Saalfelden-Leogang bike park opened in 2001 and has become one of the most popular European meetings for downhillers. The Austrian winter sports resort, not far from Salzburg, joined the UCI Mountain Bike World Cup in 2010 and hosted the 2012 UCI Mountain Bike World Championships (Downhill/4X) followed by the 4X Worlds in 2013 and 2014. With its spectacular views, Leogang once again promises to be sensational. Leogang has been awarded the 2020 UCI Mountain Bike Downhill World Championships.

The complete competition programme is available on the UCI website.

PRESENTATION OF THE ROUNDS

VALLNORD / AND XCO / DHI

The first combined XCO/DHI round of the 2017 UCI Mountain Bike World Cup presented by Shimano will take place in the Vallnord Bike Park in La Massana, Andorra, in the heart of the Pyrenees. Riders will square off on the same terrain that saw the world's best battle it out for the rainbow jersey at the 2015 UCI Mountain Bike & Trials World Championships.

The complete competition programme is available
on the UCI website.

PRESENTATION OF THE ROUNDS

LENZERHEIDE / SUI XCO / DHI

The Swiss alpine resort of Lenzerheide hosts its third consecutive combined event which has become known for its exciting XCO competitions and thrilling DHI racing featuring high-speed passages and spectacular jumps. This year's event will serve as a rehearsal for the 2018 UCI Mountain Bike World Championships which will take place in the Swiss resort in September next year.

The complete competition programme is available
on the UCI website.

PRESENTATION OF THE ROUNDS

MONT-SAINTE-ANNE / CAN XCO / DHI

The Canadian round has been an integral part of the UCI Mountain Bike World Cup since 1991. This highlight of the World Cup takes place at one of the "Sommets de Saint Laurent" in Quebec and deserves its reputation as a Mecca of mountain biking. Proof of its popularity: in 2016 it was voted "best XCO event" of the 2016 UCI Mountain Bike World Cup presented by Shimano.

The complete competition programme is available
on the UCI website.

PRESENTATION OF THE ROUNDS

VAL DI SOLE / ITA XCO / DHI

The Italian resort in Trentino will host the final round which sees the crowning of the overall XCO and DHI winners of the 2017 UCI Mountain Bike World Cup. A regular host of the World Cup, Val di Sole also organised the UCI Mountain Bike & Trials World Championships in 2008, and the Downhill/4X Worlds last year. For the third year in a row, the 4X Worlds will take place in Val di Sole.

*The complete competition programme is available
on the UCI website.*

2017 UCI MOUNTAIN BIKE ELITE TEAMS

A low-angle, high-contrast photograph of a mountain biker in a blue and red jersey riding a purple bike through a forest. The rider is wearing a helmet and is in a dynamic, low position on the bike. The background is filled with tall, thin trees and dappled sunlight filtering through the canopy. The overall tone is energetic and professional.

In total, 139 teams from 30 countries have been registered for the 2017 season. Two nations - Slovakia and the Republic of Korea - have registered a team for the first time. An overall increase in the number of teams and riders is particularly noticeable in the Olympic discipline, which sees the registration of nine more Endurance (XC) teams and nearly 50 more riders than in 2016.

As in previous years, 30 teams (15 Endurance teams and 15 Gravity teams) have been awarded UCI ELITE Mountain Bike status. Invitations to join this higher tier of teams were issued to the top 12 Endurance (XC) teams of a special ranking which was established based on the individual UCI points won by the riders up until December 31st 2016. Invitations to the top 12 Gravity (DHI) teams were issued on the basis of the individual riders' final 2016 UCI World Cup standings and 2016 UCI World Championships results. The three remaining teams of each format (XC and DHI) were selected at the UCI's discretion.

UCI ELITE Mountain Bike teams benefit from advantages including free entry to all races on the UCI Mountain Bike International Calendar in the discipline in which the team has ELITE status. This includes free entry, and an obligation to enter at least one rider, into all rounds of the UCI Mountain Bike World Cup presented by Shimano.
